Hrorek, King, and Caoilfhionn, Queen, Outlands

Jubilant are We, as, by right of arms, Our rightful heirs are finally revealed to us. The pride of the Outlands met on the field of Our Crown Tournament to test their might against one another in chivalric combat. Glorious in victory, His Excellency Bela Kos carried the day in honor of his gentle consort, Mistress Claudia. We are well pleased with Our heirs, and know without question that when Our time has passed Their Royal Highnesses too, will serve the Outlands with diligence and love, taking pride in Their populace and its culture and traditions. His Royal Highness Bela Kos, and Her Royal Highness Claudia Lisabette Senetori will be traveling the land upon Our business. We take great pride in Our heirs and know in Our hearts that the love of the people of this Kingdom will warm and uphold them, as it has Us for these many months.

The Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass hosted Us in grandeur as the month began. It was with great sadness that We observed the stepping down of Their Excellencies Roger de Gilbert and Constance Warrock. Yet this sadness was tempered with great joy as We invested Giovanni di Lucca and Muireann Inghean Soalan as Our new territorial Baron and Baroness of these lands. It was also with joy and sadness that We held Our Crown Tournament, for even as the greatness of the people of the Outlands sustain Us, We yet realize that Our time as the Sovereigns of these lands grows short. To end the day We beheld the lavish spectacle of the Laurelling ceremony of now Mistress Naquiba Bahiyyah bint Suhayl. Truly, it was an occasion that will be long remembered.

It was Our pleasure the following week to receive the hospitality of the good people of the Shire of Blackwater Keep as We were witness to their annual defender tourney. The prowess displayed both on the list fields and archery range was an inspiration to all. The feast that evening was most enjoyable as were treated once again to the great fare and great revelry that they are renowned for. Traveling northward We took rest at Our College of Blaiddwyn and enjoyed a day of mighty feats of arms and the noble exchange of knowledge. It was Our honor in court that day to bestow the accolade of knighthood upon Thomas Winterbourne of Kent in recognition of his great chivalry. We thank Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana and the members of the college for all they have done for Us and the Kingdom during Our reign.

As April begins We find Ourselves in Our Barony of Fontaine dans Sable for Sworded Affaire. Truly, We are most pleased as the ladies and gentlemen of the rapier community gather to display their gallantry for the Crown, Their Excellencies and one another. Then, traveling even to the far north of Our land, We make Our way to the fair shire of Wind-keep, where some of the greatest artisans in the land gather to display the skill and creativity which is the hallmark of this Kingdom. Having been shown your artistic might at the Estrella War, We expect to see great works indeed. Even with this well deserved expectation, however, We know We will be amazed and pleased with the quality of work and art that We behold. Truly, the Outlands is blessed. Then next week We make Our way to the great Barony of Caerthe, which lies nestled like a jewel in the very heart of the Outlands, to attend the Caerthan Guild Fair to be received and welcomed in Our Barony of Caerthe with the all the hospitality and grace that We have come to expect from the Noble Gentles of that place.

We have been most pleased with Our Royal progress, as We tour the sovereign lands We claim the honor of ruling. Even as old age begins to dim Our sight, still Our hearts warm and swell with pride at people and groups that are the very strength of the Outlands. Until Our next missive, We bid all good gentles of Our kingdom safe travels and fair weather.

Bela, Prince, and Claudia, Princess, Outlands

Warm greetings and salutations to the great and noble people of the Outlands! Spring is upon us and Their Royal Majesties have held the tournament to find Their Heirs. We would like to thank Their Royal Majesties for the honor they have given us to be able to fight in that tournament. It was a joy to stand on the field of honor with so many worthy and skilled warriors. That joy was further enhanced by the beauty and grace of all the consorts who inspired their lords to great feats of valor that day. A hearty HUZAH to all who participated and helped make the day so memorable for us.

The event was a wonderful day and evening of splendor and courtesy provided by the good people of the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass. As always the hospitality shown by the Nobles and populace of the Citadel has shown what a jewel the Barony truly is. We would also like to congratulate Their Excellencies Giovanni and Muireann on Their ascension to the Citadel Coronets; we look forward to working with you in the coming months.

Thanks to all of the people of the Outlands for making this Kingdom as mighty as it is in all facets. We are honored and proud to have this opportunity to travel these great lands and meet as many of you as we can.

In Service to the Outlands,

Bela
Prince

Claudia
Princess

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

To the populace of the Outlands, Greetings;

Congratulations to Their Highnesses, Bela and Claudia, for His victory at Crown Tournament. As with every crown, They are looking for those willing to serve this kingdom by serving its crown. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Them to let Them know of your desire.

Kingdom Arts & Sciences, hosted by the shire of Windkeep, is an excellent opportunity to not only display your works, but to appreciate the extensive talents of this kingdom. Please look to the event article in this month's OH for more information.

The kingdom is still in need of a hosting group for Fall Crown Tournament and Fall Coronation. If you're interested in being autocrat for one of these events, please contact your local seneschal.

Amitié c'est le Roi,

Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

My apologies to anyone who hoped to catch my ear at Crown Tournament, and my thanks to Lady Marie de Blois, Palmer Herald, who stood in my place, and to Lord Aethelwulf the Goliard, Plover Herald, for his work as the chief field herald of the day. Tournament season begins, so shake the dust out of those banners and touch up the paint on your shields, and let's put on our summer finery for the all the Known World to see. Outlands Twentieth Year Celebration will be here before we know it, and I hope to see a pennon from every point. More on this in next month's letter, and also watch the Outlands yahooogroup for more information.

SPOTLIGHT: This section has been eaten by a grue. Okay, not really, it's actually been eaten by a herald on cough syrup. It's not a pretty sight. Fortunately, by the time you read this, I'll have had a cleric in to bring it back to life. Or something.

LOAR RESULTS: The November 2005 LoAR has been received. Details are, or soon will be, available at <http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/>, and submitters will be notified by postal mail.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,
ThL Sorcha MacLeod

Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Good Outlanders,

By the time you receive this missive, the Kingdom Arts Competition will be upon us. Remember that there is always a need for judges.

Many thanks to Master Rhys, the Laurel representative to the War Council for handling the Arts portion of this years Estrella War. In the category of Gauntlets there were no entries. In the category of Metheglin, an entry from Artemesia placed first. Mistress Rowan placed second with Mistress Leonora a close third. In the category of calligraphy and Illumination Llewys took first, a gentle from Caid took Second and Mistress Cailte took third. Congratulations also to the winning Siege Cooking team of Mistress Mirianna, Mistress Leonora, Lord Trayfen, Mistress Meriel, Dama Theresa, Mistress Aldyth, and Baroness Anne who won the day with over 15 different dishes. In the final A&S scoring Atenveldt/Artemesia three points, Outlands/Caid, 9 points.

Now is the time to begin considering Estrella 2008. It has been decided by the representatives of the principal kingdoms to go to the populous to help in deciding what categories to feature in 2008. Master Rhys has requested that people contact him privately with the top five categories you believe should be considered, in order of importance

Just a reminder the 2007 catagories are: Equestrian equipment (not including the horse), Felting, Instrumental music performance.

I hope to see you all at Kingdom A&S.
 In Service

The Honorable Lady Chiara Grassi

Kingdom Earl Marshall

Greeting Outlanders,

A new Prince and Princess grace our mists as of this writing. Congratulations to Their Highnesses Bela and Claudia. Crown in Citadel was very enjoyable, the communication between the fighters on the field was exemplary. Everything I saw was discussed by the fighters themselves on the field. Huzzah.

Just before, we had Estrella War. Many thanks to ALL who marshalled and allowed folks to fight. As usual, the Outlands showed it's strength in volunteers as well as on the field. A minor concern about the weapons though. The 1.25 inches in diameter minimum for weapons has been around for a LONG time. Many recently have brought forth weapons that were far thinner. Please insure that your weapons and armour are to specification and in good repair. If in doubt, please see the marshallate rules for the Society and our Kingdom.

Thank you, Sir Mavrikii

Kingdom Marshall of Fence

From the Kingdom Rapier Marshal, greetings

A little bit of paperwork this month: as the Earl Marshal said in his letter in the February OH, I'd like to work on cleaning up the authorization lists. Please, if you can, take the time to check the on-line documentation on the Outlands page and ensure that your authorization information is up to date. If it is not, please contact the marshal who authorized you if possible with the correct information (expiration date, membership number, forms authorized.)

With that, I encourage everyone to indulge the fun side of rapier as well; get to events and lets fight!

In Service

Don Charles Robert Blackstone

Kingdom Minister of the Lists

To the fighters of the Outlands, Good Day!

With each Crown Tournament goes a round of thanks. This past Crown is no different.

First thanks go to Their Majesties. Their thoroughness made preparations for the list a breeze. And, the tournament format was an exciting one. I know of fighters who were not planning to enter, who changed their minds just because the tournament looked like too much fun to pass up!

Also, thank you to Sir Berold, and all of his staff. They took extremely good care of me and mine. Every question I asked had already been planned, and everything I needed was ready before I could ask. I cannot thank you enough for all your hard work.

To everyone who helped in the list and on the field, the tournament could not have been a success without you. I get to write this missive, but I do so little in comparison with the heralds, marshals, card runners and water bearers. The joy of watching a Crown list is all due to you. Thank you, and thank you again!

As Ever Yours,

Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Kingdom Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, send greetings.

I am delighted to be in service and with your help, will be creating new youth related resources and providing easy access to these resources and other valuable information. One of the ways that we can start sharing our knowledge, ideas, youth activities, plans, support and resources is to use the discussion list that you can join at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Outlands-MOC>. I hope that everyone who works with youth in the Outlands or has an interest in youth activities will join this list.

Please let me know any questions, that have arisen in your local group from your youth and their parents and your youth activities volunteers, which you feel would benefit others. I would also love to have you send me resources that you have found valuable, including articles, discussion lists, websites, handbooks, pamphlets, youth booklets, etc. so that we can share these with each other. If you are a Minister of Children for your local group or you work with youth activities, please contact me at kreg@aps.edu or Barbara Kreg, 12612 Morrow Avenue N.E., Albuquerque, N.M. 87112, 505-293-7453.

Every event can require youth waiver forms, beyond the Kingdom's requirements. So it is important to check the event's website for the youth forms that the event requires. If you are planning youth activities at your events, please let me know, so that I can help spread the word.

In Service to the Outlands,

Lady Jayne Barber

My Lord Hrorek's shield is silver it's obvious to all who look with eyes that God has given them that the shield is argent, pure and cold

Greetings to all and singular!

There comes a time each year that the Coronet of the strong and noble Barony of Dragonsspine requests that fighters from throughout the Kingdom come test their mettle in tournaments of skill and chivalry. These tests of skill will include all of the fighting arts such as heavy combat, rapier finesse and the art of the long strike with archery. And new to this year, two tournaments of fun and skill with prizes for our youngest combatants, boffer tourneys to showcase the Pride of the Outlands.

If you think that only the arts of combat will be on display, you are sorely mistaken! As we in this fine Barony have known for years, our country sides rival the beauty of any other's in the Knowne World! And to showcase this, we have been instructed to offer rides on the backs of our noble steeds across our lands. There will also be hay rides on Friday and Saturday evening to relax, catch up with old friends and enjoy the beautiful star-lit skies of Dragonsspine (horse and hay rides offered at a small additional fare).

So come and enjoy an event of camaraderie, amazing martial displays and much-needed relaxation. Come and enjoy the Dragonsspine Warlord and Champions event.

Request for comments from the Board of Directors, 1 of 3

The Board of Directors wishes to clarify, in the Governing Documents, the language regarding appealing sanctions. It is found in three places: Corpora I.C.3; Corpora IV.G.4.c; and Corporate Policies II.D.4. The substantial change in each is to note that one appeal will be heard for each sanction, but any additional appeals must be accompanied by new information in order to be heard.

Commentary is due to the Board of Directors no later than June 1, 2006. Please send comments to:

Corpora Revision, SCA Inc, Box 360789, Milpitas CA, 95036
email: comments@sca.org

Corpora IV.G.4.c currently reads as follows:

c. Notification: Upon receipt of a request for Board action affecting membership, the Board shall notify the person(s) in question of when the matter will be considered and invite all relevant documentation and appeals. The Board will discuss and decide such a petition in accordance with its rules. Regardless of how the process is initiated, a revocation or denial of membership by the Board enforces exclusion from all SCA events in all SCA kingdoms. Such a revocation or denial of membership may be appealed, but such appeal must be accompanied by new evidence which warrants re-examination by the Board. At the conclusion of the imposed term of revocation or denial, or if an appeal as provided above is accepted by the Board, exclusion from SCA events shall be lifted, and the individual allowed to (re)apply for membership in the SCA, unless membership is again denied.

It would be changed to read:

c. Notification: Upon receipt of a request for Board action affecting membership, the Board shall notify the person(s) in question of when the matter will be considered and invite all relevant documentation and appeals. The Board will discuss and decide such a petition in accordance with its rules. Regardless of how the process is initiated, a revocation or denial of membership by the Board enforces exclusion from all SCA events in all SCA kingdoms. Sanctions imposed or upheld by the Board of Directors may be appealed as provided in Corpora I.C.3. At the conclusion of the imposed term of revocation or denial, or if an appeal as provided above is granted by the Board, exclusion from SCA events shall be lifted, and the individual allowed to (re)apply for membership in the SCA, unless membership is again denied.

Request for comments from the Board of Directors, 1 of 3, continued

Corporate Policies II.D.4. currently reads as follows:

4. Appeal

A revocation or denial of membership may be appealed, but such appeal must be accompanied by new evidence that warrants re-examination by the Board. At the conclusion of the imposed term of revocation or denial, or if an appeal as provided above is accepted by the Board, exclusion from SCA events shall be lifted, and the individual shall be allowed to (re)apply for membership in the SCA, unless membership is again denied.

It would be changed to read:

4. Appeal

Sanctions imposed or upheld by the Board of Directors may be appealed. Members may appeal such sanctions to the Board as provided in Corpora I.C.3. At the conclusion of the imposed term of revocation or denial, or if an appeal as provided above is granted by the Board, exclusion from SCA events shall be lifted, and the individual shall be allowed to (re)apply for membership in the SCA, unless membership is again denied.

And Corpora I.C.3 currently reads as follows:

3. Right of appeal

The Board is the ultimate determiner and arbiter of the rules of the Society, regardless of what authority it may delegate elsewhere. All members of the Society shall therefore have the right of appeal to the Board, provided they follow proper channels for complaint and appeal.

When individual actions or decisions are appealed to the Board, any Directors who have been personally involved with the matters in question within the medieval structure of the Society must declare the potential conflict of interest and withdraw from the ruling.

It would be changed to read:

3. Right of appeal

The Board is the ultimate determiner and arbiter of the rules of the Society, regardless of what authority it may delegate elsewhere. All members of the Society shall therefore have the right of appeal to the Board, provided they follow proper channels for complaint and appeal.

After one appeal has been heard by the Board, additional appeals may be presented, but such appeals must be accompanied by new evidence that warrants re-examination by the Board. The Board may choose not to hear such additional appeals if it feels the evidence does not warrant re-examination. At the conclusion of the imposed term of revocation or denial, or if an appeal as provided above is granted by the Board, exclusion from SCA events shall be lifted, and the individual shall be allowed to (re)apply for membership in the SCA, unless membership is again denied.

Greetings to the members of the SCA.

Currently, section I.B.4 of the Corporate Policies for the SCA, Inc. defines a Family Membership as follows:

4. Family Membership extends the privileges of Section I.B.1 to the immediate family of a member defined in paragraphs B.1-B.2 of this Article, who live at the same physical address as the member. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.

Per the membership application, the cost for family membership is:

- Family: $10.00 – Immediate family of a Sustaining or International member residing at the same address. Family members are extended the privileges of Associate membership. A maximum of $60 will be collected from families with one Sustaining and three or more family members ($35 + $25).

This membership is meant for families, specifically immediate families at the same address, to be able to enjoy membership at a reasonable cost. We have, unfortunately, seen what appears to be a growing trend of abuse of this membership type over the past few years, with as many as 20 people applying under one family membership.

Therefore, the Board is considering the following change to the definition of a Family Membership. A Family Membership would include two (2) adults and any children 17 and under residing at the same address. Section I.B.4 of the Corporate Policies for the SCA, Inc. would be changed to read as follows:

4. Family Membership extends the privileges of Section I.B.1 to the one additional adult and minor children 17 and under, in addition to a member as defined in paragraphs B.1-B.2 of this Article, who live at the same physical address as the member. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.

Unto the members of the SCA,

At the October 2005 quarterly meeting, the Society Exchequer asked that the Land Use Policy be moved from the Exchequers handbook to Corporate Policies.

If the Board of Directors agreed to this change, the policy would become Corporate Policy XIV: Policy on Real Estate. The current XIV: Amendment to Corporate Policies would be renumbered XV.

Note that no changes to the actual text of the policy is being considered, simply that it will be moved into the governing documents.

The policy reads:
REAL ESTATE

A. Funds may be designated to the purchase or improvement of real estate by branches, provided that the source, maintenance, and purpose of any such funds are clearly designated within the branch's financial policy.

Request for comments from the Board of Directors, 3 of 3, continued

B. No representative of the SCA may financially obligate the SCA to the purchase or substantial improvement of real estate without prior approval of the Board of Directors. An improvement will be considered to be substantial if:

- (1) It requires a building permit or other clearance from the local government;
- (2) It increases the fair market value of the property, or
- (3) It is constructed in a manner that makes its portability to another site questionable or infeasible.

C. A separate incorporation for the purpose of holding real estate may be required by the Board of Directors.

Commentary is due to the Board of Directors no later than April 30, 2006. Please send comments to:

Greetings Mighty Outlanders from the Pelican of the War Council,

The echoes of the war drums are slowly receding, but the glory won on all fields remains. The Outlands was victorious at WAR! Many people worked hard for the war effort, and I wish to thank some of them. Sir Olaf saved the day before war even started when he ensured that the Outlands would have shade pavilions for our waterbearers, food-on-the-field staff, and party hosts. His efforts are greatly appreciated and my thanks knows no bounds. Master Gwilim, unable to attend due to a family emergency, was ably assisted by Sir Mavriki, Sir Lavan, Sir Olaf, Countess Elizabeth, and Duchess Madigan who helped all the groups find their designated spots that he had pre-plotted with great detail on the land map. Thanks to all of them! I have heard that the Outlands fielded more marshals than any other group; fighters, your generosity in giving up your time to aid the war effort is commendable and shows your generosity of spirit. Lady Slaine and Lady Astra both worked tirelessly before and during the entire event to ensure our volunteer commitment was there. Master Ian Cradoc, Deputy Sheriff for the Kingdom of Atenveldt and Master Yehudah of Nuremberg, Sheriff to the Kingdom of Atenveldt wrote, ... "thank you all for the efforts put forth by the Outlanders who volunteered for the various and sundry posts that were staffed Friday night at the War. It was the first time that we can ever recall even a majority of the posts being filled at the end of the night." To those gentles who filled these posts HUZAH! Lady Siobhan and her team of waterbearers and Mistress Aldyth and her team of food-on-the-field people worked hard for several hours every day to keep all fighters well hydrated and well snacked. The rest of the council was often not as visible, but their efforts greatly enriched the war: Master Rhys, THL Larke, Don Charles, Lord Oengus, and Lord Æthelwulf, worked very hard, both before and during the war, giving up many hours of personal enjoyment so that the war ran smoothly, and the populace had the fun and time to win the WAR! Baroness Benza stepped in at the last minute to graciously host the Outlands party on Thursday night, and House McKillicae set up the bar. A huge thank you to those who served the kingdom via their hospitality. My personal thanks go to Duchess Madigan and Countess Elizabeth who helped me often this first year. I am deeply indebted to them for their advice and patience.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,

Baroness Joella of Blue Lion's Keep

The Board of Directors needs your help! We ask that you write or email the Board giving us your comments regarding any of the nominees on this list with whom you are familiar. While all commentary is more than welcome, we find it especially helpful to read your assessments of the nominee's abilities in areas such as working with diverse groups of people, understanding of varied aspects of the SCA, ability to plan and carry through projects to completion, ability to meet deadlines and keep up with correspondence, and past experiences in either SCA or modern world capacities that would be useful on a nonprofit corporation's Board of Directors. We also strongly encourage you to send us the name and contact information of anyone you feel would make a good candidate for the Board of Directors. All commentary is kept confidential, and new Directors never see the commentary made about them. Please address comments to the Ombudsman for Board Recruiting: Lis Schraer, 3651 Hartford St., St. Louis, MO 63116, or send them via email to recruiting@sca.org.
